

An Orissi Woman

The sarees of Orissa, in silk or cotton are generally hand woven ikat, incorporating bold geometrical patterns in the saree body and traditional fish and floral auspicious motifs in the border, as in this Vicchitrapuri cotton, worn by this bright-eyed young girl. Finely wrought filigreed silver jewellery contrasts with the deep and bright textile colours. Of special interest are the kaan jhumka earrings, which cover the ear and end in a bell-shaped drop.
