

February 1977

Couples partaking wine, painted wood, Rajasthan, 19th century A.D.

Such colourful decorative toys, depicting aspects of Rajasthani life, bring joy to children, as also a sense of identification with the world of adults.

Background:
Prince on throne with attendant, copper repousse, Mughal workmanship, probably Delhi/Lucknow, 20th century A.D.

The technique of repousse work on sheet metal, used on vessels and plaques, is typical of the decorative arts of North India.
