

1

Is this girl:

A
Miss World of 1967

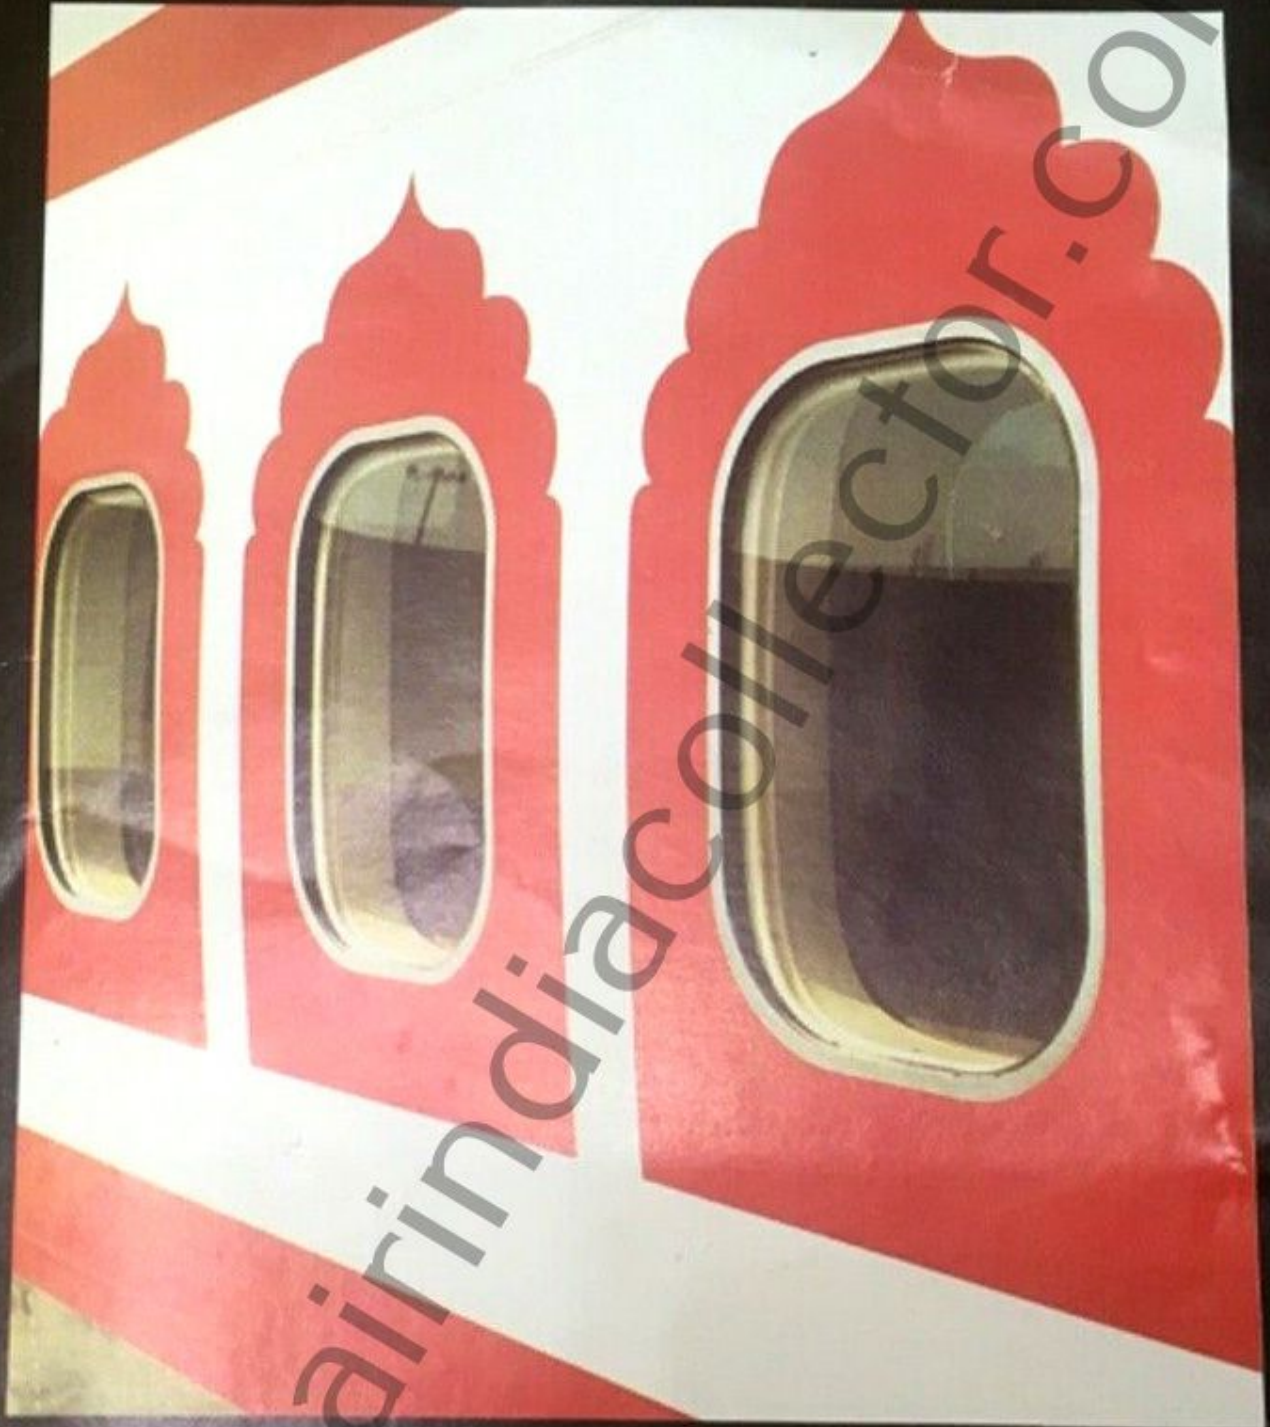

B
A famous Indian film actress

C
A descendant from Nefertiti

D
None of these

2

Do these windows remind you of:

A

The Hawai Mahal at Jaipur

B

The New Mosque in Istanbul

C

A design on an 8th century coffin in Mykonos

D

None of these

Are these frescoes inspired by:

A

The Minoan Palace of Cnossos in Crete

B

Krishna's Temple in Gokula, Northern India

C

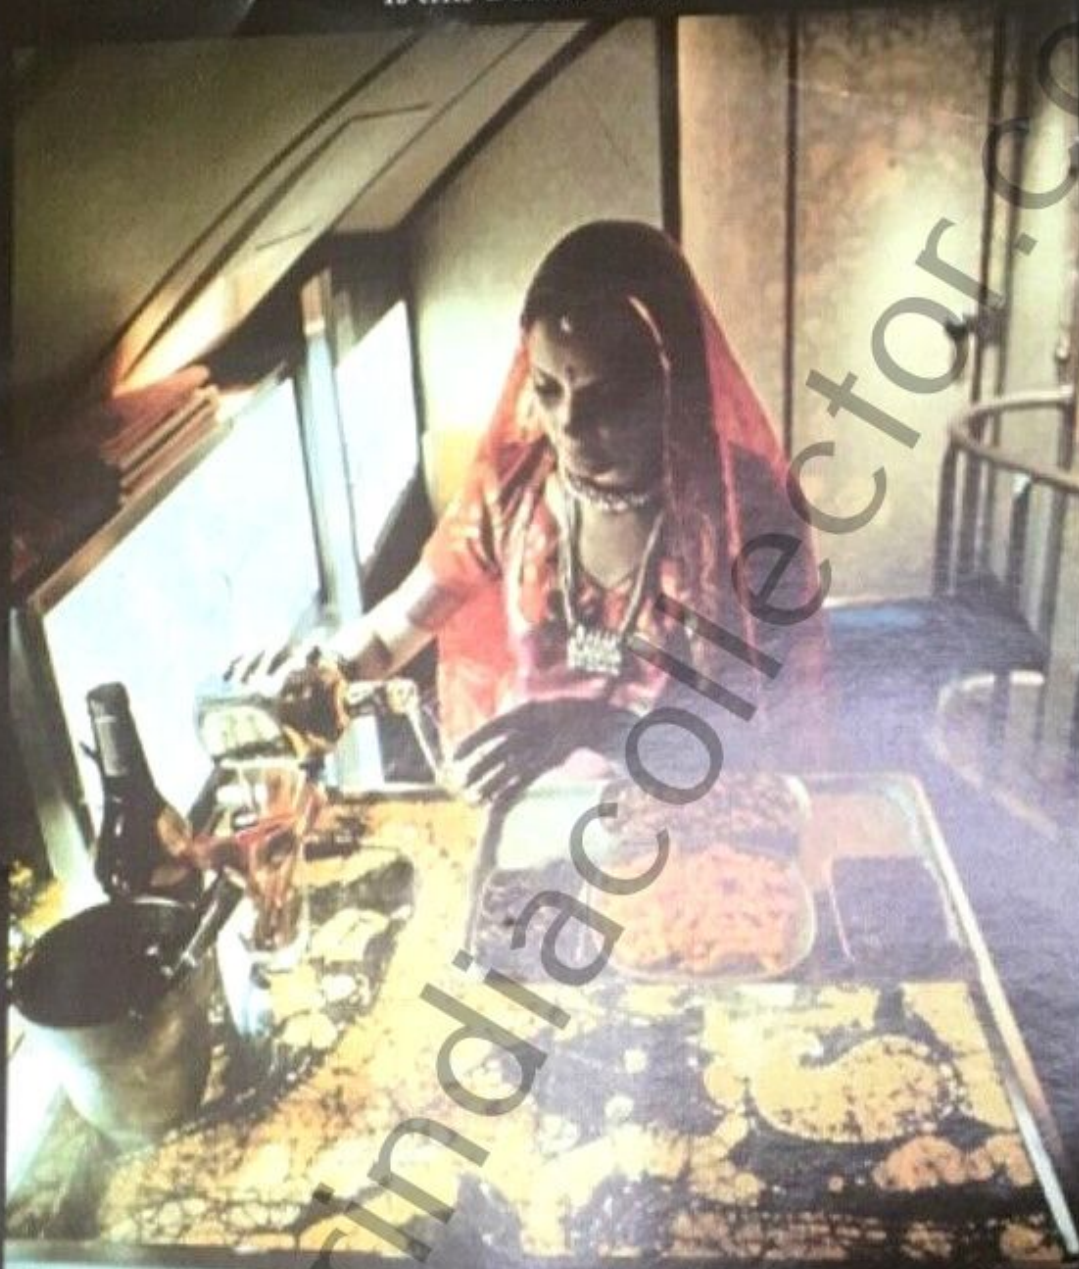

The Matisse Chapel in Vence

D

None of these

4

Is this a scene from:

A
Raffles Club in Singapore

B
Aoishiro Club in Tokyo

C
Officers Mess in Delhi

D
None of these

1 2

The answer is D.
The girl in our picture is an Air-India hostess wearing an ankle length Rajasthani costume in yellow and orange silk enriched by silver jewellery.

The answer should be A.
These Rajasthani style arches are designed to give the effect of a row of 'Jharoka' type balconies reminiscent of those at the Hawai Mahal at Jaipur.

The answer is B.
The frescoes depict episodes from the eventful life of Lord Krishna, one of the most revered of the Hindu Gods, whose romantic escapades have now passed into legend.

The answer is D.
However, our picture shows part of the Maharajah lounge which is as near to the experience and comfort of a club as you'll find anywhere at 30,000 feet.

3 4

The answer every time can be found aboard the new Air-India 747, the jumbo that combines glamour and tradition, comfort and beauty and has brought back an excitement to modern air travel.

AIR-INDIA
747