INDIAN PANORAMA

Air-India presents the diversity in Indian architectural style and scenic beauty — from the 7th century rock-hewn Shore Temple at Mammallapuram, to the frozen marble majesty of the 17th Century Taj Mahal; from the superb memorial to Queen Victoria in Calcutta, built to synthesize two great cultures, to the quiet elegance of the "jharokha", the arched window of Rajasthan; from the simplicity of Lutyens' India Gate memorial, built for the Indian soldiers who died in the Great War, to the complex coloured carvings of the Meenakshi temple; and from the red sandstone Islamic Minar, with calligraphic carvings from the Koran, to the timeless shores of the Kerala fishermen — a unity and strength in diversity.
