CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT

1. Carriage hereunder is subject to the rules relating to liability established by the Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules relating to International Carriage by Air signed at Warsaw, October 12, 1929, and contained in the First Schedule to the Carriage by Air Act, 1934, if such carriage is "International carriage" as defined by the said Convention and Act. Carriage hereunder is also subject to Governmental regulations, demands, orders and requirements.

2. If and to the extent that it is not in conflict with the law to be applied :—

(a) The Carrier shall be under no liability whatsoever to the passenger, his heirs, legal representatives, or dependants or their respective assignees, for death, injury or delay to the passenger or loss, damage, detention or delay to his baggage or personal property arising out of the carriage or any other services or operations of the Carrier whether or not caused or occasioned by the act, neglect, negligence or default of the Carrier, or of pilots, flying, operational or other staff or employees of agents of the Carrier or otherwise howsoever and the Carrier shall be held indemnified against all claims, suits, actions, proceedings, damages, costs, charges and expenses in respect thereof, or arising out of or in connection with such carriage or other services or operations of the Carrier (and in the case of a minor passenger, the passenger accompanying such minor shall be liable to hold the Carrier so indemnified). The above exemptions from liability and indemnities in favour of the Carrier extend to the carriage by surface transport of the passenger, his baggage and personal property to or from the Airport at places of embarkation, destination or intermediate stopping places, the custody, loading or unloading of such baggage, and personal property into and from aircraft or surface transport and to all other services and operations of the Carrier whatsoever.

(b) (i) If the carriage is "International carriage" then in any event the passenger, having been offered a choice of rates according to value (as per tariffs and applicable rules and regulations of the Carrier which, for the purposes of this clause, are hereby made part hereof and copies of which are available for inspection at any of the offices of the Carrier and at airports from which it operates regular services) the liability of the Carrier for loss of or damage to baggage and to personal property other than baggage or for delay in the delivery thereof is limited to the declared value thereof (or to the actual value if less than the declared value) which is agreed to be in the aggregate not more than Rs. 300/- Indian currency (or its equivalent) per passenger unless a higher valuation is declared in advance and additional charges paid therefor pursuant to the tariffs of the Carrier; notwithstanding that any loss damage or delay may have been caused or occasioned by the act, neglect, negligence or default of the Carrier or of pilots, flying, operational or other employees or agents of the Carrier or in any other manner.

(ii) If the carriage is other than "International carriage" then in any event (in so far as any liability may be imposed on the Carrier by the law) such liability for loss of or damage or delay to baggage and to personal property of the passenger is limited to and agreed to be in the aggregate the actual value thereof or Rs. 300/- whichever is the less; notwithstanding that any loss damage or delay may have been caused or occasioned by the act, neglect, negligence or default of the Carrier or of pilots flying operational or other employees or agents of the Carrier or in any other manner.

3. When officially validated, this ticket is good for carriage on the date and for the specified scheduled service. In case of purchase of open date ticket, i.e. where both date and time of scheduled service are not specified, this ticket is valid and may be utilised by the passenger (subject to reservation of accommodation being arranged) for any flight from the Airport at the place of departure to the Airport at the place of destination within three months from the date of issue, and if not so utilised the passenger shall not be entitled to refund of the fare paid.

4. The passenger shall be liable to pay in accordance with the tariffs and applicable rules and regulations of the Carrier for all baggage and personal property in excess of the free allowance permitted by such tariffs.

5. The scheduled time of departure of the service as noted elsewhere on this ticket and times of departure and arrival shown in time tables of the Carrier (copies of which time tables are available for inspection at any of the Offices of the Carrier and at airports from which it operates regular services) or elsewhere furnish only indications of approximate times and form no part of the contract of carriage; and no such times are guaranteed. Schedules are subject to change without notice. The Carrier reserves the right without notice to substitute its own carriers or aircraft (if specified) or to cancel or terminate, postpone or delay any flight or service or the further right of passage or reservation of traffic accommodations in whole or in part, and to decide if for any reason the times of departure or arrival should be modified and if any departure or landing should be made at any particular time or place, without thereby incurring any liability to the passenger or to any other person on any ground whatsoever. No responsibility for making connections is accepted. If there is any question of an aircraft being overloaded, the person authorised by the Carrier to supervise loading shall decide which persons or articles shall be carried. Nothing in this clause shall preclude the Carrier from refusing to carry any article as baggage. The agreed stopping places if not set out on the face of the ticket are shown as scheduled stopping places in the time tables of the Carrier, but the Carrier reserves the right to alter the stopping places in case of necessity.

6. The Carrier shall not be liable for losses or expenses arising from the failure of the passenger to comply with Government travel requirements and to possess valid passports or exit or entry documents and other certificates required by law. The passenger must arrive at the Airport (or elsewhere if so required by the Carrier) by the time fixed by the Carrier or noted on the face of the ticket as the time at which he must report at the Carrier's Aerodrome office; and if no such time is fixed or noted, sufficiently in advance of the scheduled time of departure, to permit the completion of Governmental and other formalities and the checking of baggage or personal property. Failure to attend in accordance with this condition will entail loss of reservation of seat in the said aircraft and will not entitle the passenger to claim refund of the fare paid for this ticket.

7. No employee or agent of the Carrier has authority to alter, modify or waive in any manner any of the provisions or conditions of this contract.

8. The illegality or non-validity of any paragraph, clause or provision, contained or referred to in this ticket shall not affect or invalidate any other paragraph or provision hereof.

9. This passenger ticket is strictly personal for the use of the person named on the ticket as passenger and cannot be transferred.

10. For the purpose of the exemptions from liability provisions set forth herein or contained, the term "Carrier" as used herein shall be deemed to include the agents, employees and representatives of the Carrier.
