

A Bengali Woman

The Bengali girl, her soft looks framed by her jet-black cascading hair, is dressed in the manner of an orthodox, older married woman. The white silk saree with the 'lalpara' or red border combination is repeated in the white blouse edged with a red frill neckline. Red-powdered sindoor in the hair signifies the married status. Heavy gold filigree jewellery, two necklaces, each shaped in floral medallion patterns and 'kaan' jhumka, bells suspended from earrings shaped to cover the ear, add femininity to the attire.
