

A Parsi Woman

Strong, sharp features, a throwback to her Persian ancestry, this Parsi girl of the Zoroastrian faith, is dressed in a '30s fashion style. During this period, due to trade links between Parsi entrepreneurs, China and the Western world, Parsi fashions are a curious and interesting blend of three cultures. The Chinese embroidered silk saris, reminiscent of hand-painted scrolls, are called gara, and are today family heirlooms. The diamond jewellery worn is also of the '30s and is Western in design.
